BEFORE: ALVEY, Chairman, STIVERS and BORDERS, Members.

BORDERS, Member. Tina Spurgeon (“Spurgeon”) appeals from the April 20, 2020 Opinion, Award, and Order and the Order on Petition for Reconsideration rendered on May 4, 2020 by Hon. Jeff V. Layson, Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”). The ALJ determined Spurgeon is permanently and totally disabled due to a May 14, 2016 work-related right shoulder injury for which she had undergone three surgeries. The ALJ further determined the awarded benefits will terminate upon Spurgeon reaching the age of seventy, pursuant to the recent amendments to KRS 342.730(4), in effect on the date the award was issued.

Spurgeon filed a Petition for Reconsideration arguing the amendments contained in House Bill 2 concerning the retroactivity of the provision limiting Spurgeon's benefits to the age of seventy are unconstitutional. The petition was overruled by the ALJ. This appeal followed. As this appeal only concerns the constitutionality of KRS 342.730(4), a recitation of the facts considered by the ALJ and his findings regarding the determinations set forth in his opinion is unnecessary.

House Bill 2, effective July 14, 2018, KRS 342.730(4) mandates as follows:

All income benefits payable pursuant to this chapter shall terminate as of the date upon which the employee reaches the age of seventy (70), or four (4) years after the employee's injury or last exposure, whichever last occurs. In like manner all income benefits payable pursuant to this chapter to spouses and dependents shall terminate as of the date upon which the employee would have reached age seventy (70) or four (4) years after the employee's date of injury or date of last exposure, whichever last occurs.

In Holcim v. Swinford, 581 S.W.3d 37 (Ky. 2019), the Kentucky Supreme Court determined the amended version of KRS 342.730(4), effective July 14, 2018, regarding the termination of benefits at age seventy has retroactive applicability. Because the Kentucky Supreme Court has determined the newly enacted amendment applies retroactively, we affirm the ALJ's decision ordering the permanent total disability benefits are subject to the limitations in KRS 342.730(4), effective July 14, 2018.

We additionally note that this Board, as an administrative tribunal, has no jurisdiction to determine the constitutionality of a statute. Blue Diamond Coal Company v. Cornett, 300 Ky. 647, 189 S.W.2d 963 (1945). Consequently, we are without authority to render a decision upon Spurgeon's argument regarding the constitutionality of the amended statute. Thus, we affirm.

Accordingly, the April 20, 2020 Opinion, Award, and Order, as well as the May 4, 2020 Order on Petition for Reconsideration issued by Hon. Jeff V. Layson, Administrative Law Judge, are hereby AFFIRMED.
